

Become a Friend of the Johnson Creek Public Library

The Johnson Creek Public Library is more than just a place to check out books. It also serves as a social and educational hub in our community where people connect. JCPL offers opportunities for children and adults to participate in different programs and activities, including early literacy and the summer reading program.

The Friends of JCPL:

- Assists with meeting the needs of the community
- Educates the public about the benefits of the library
- Promotes the library and encourages participation with special events
- Develops and supports fundraising for special needs of the library
